CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNORSHIP

Number of Hats in the Ring Said to be Growing all The Time.

TUCKER'S MAY BE ONE

Carlin, Davis and Glass Mentioned as Probable Candidates to Succeed Henry C. Stuart.

Richmond, Feb. 15—Governor Stuart had a walkover into the gubernatorial chair There will, however, be several competitors for his shoes.

With the formal announcement of John Garland Pollard that he will at the proper time enter the lists for the Democratic nomination speculation among the legislators and politicians in Richmond during the sessions of the General Assembly have been revived.

Richard E. Byrd, an active candidate for the nomination, and Mr. Pollard are the only two who have avowed themselves, formally or otherwise, but with this definite line up settled, new possibilties open up to might-be and would be candidates, and names of several are on the tongues of politicians. That Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Ellyson will not run is not accepted yet by more than a few. Mr. Ellyson will make no statement, merely replying, "Not yet," when asked if he is ready to announce his candidacy. Westmoreland Davis declares that he has been too busy, considering other matters, to "consider" becoming a candidate, but no amount of pressing could induce him to deny that he will run.

Then there is Congressman C. C. Carlin, boomed by some of the organization leaders who have not yet forgiven Mr. Byrd for breaking away from the organization three years ago to support Woodrow Wilson as the Democratic nominee for the Presidency. Mr. Carlin has made no announcement and is not expected to make one at an early date, if at all, but reports from Washington are to the effect that he is considering the matter.

In spite of the act that it has been understod that Mr. Pollard had delayed his announcement to find what Congressman Carter Glass might decide to do, there are those who still believe that the Lynchburg congressman will enter the race. Others, however, contend that he will enter the field against Claude A. Swanson for the United States Senate. It is known that many political friends of Mr. Swanson have assured Mr. Glass that should he became a candidate for the Governorship they would not oppose him.

A surprise, it is hinted in various quarters, is in store for the politicians and the people of the State. Harry St. George Tucker may see a chance in the number of candidates in the field, should a third or fourth man enter to sompete with Byrd and Pollard, and, taking advantage of it, may announce his own candidacy. Friends of Mr. Tucker have stated more than once during the session of the Legislature that, with three prohibitionists in the race, Tucker would be able to garden the vote of those who had opposed prohibition, which added to his personal following, would give him a splendid chance to win. Some of them who are close to the Lexington man say, however, that had Mr. Tucker contemplated such action he would have been in Richmond before this "getting a line" on the political situation.

But the Governorship and the Senatorship are not the only offices toward which eyes are being turned. If Mr. Ellyson should be a candidate for Governor there are several who may espire to his place as Lieutenant Governor. James R. Caton of Alexandria, who was a candidate in 1909. is spoken of as a possibility, and Judge Martin Williams, of Giles, floor leader of the House of Delegates, is another. It can be said, however, on Judge Williams' authority that he will not enter for the office if there is a probability of strong opposition.

For Attorney General, Hugh A. White, member of the House of Delegates from Rockbridge, and frequently mentioned as a candidate for Governor, may enter the contest. Mr White said that while he had received many offers of support should he be a candidate he had not yet given the matter serious consideration. "I would think long before I would decide to break up my home in Lexington." he said.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Mrs. James Newcomb Davis, whose pen name was Nannie G. Marshall Davis, died Saturday afternoon at the George Washington Hospital, Washington. Mrs. Davis had been a resident of Washington for many years. She was born on the old Marshall plantation on the border land between Fauquier and Fairfax counties, Virginia, and was a descendant of Chief Justice Marshall.

Mrs. Anna Roche, 40 years old, of Brooklyn, committed suicide yesterday morning by leaping from the fourth flor of her home into a stone courtyard. She was the wife of Lieut. John Roche, U. S. A., retired. Worry because she was unable to properly nourish her four-months-old baby is believed to have driven her temporarily insane.

The Chinese minister at Tokyo yesterday reported to his government that the Japanese foriegn minister, Baron Takari Kato, had declared that Japan must insist on the acceptance of the total demands recently made in the Japanese note to China. At the Chinese foreign office, however, it was said to be the intention of the Peking government to continue in its refusal to acquiesce in the Japanese demands.

A private message from Trieste says that the situation there is daily becoming more serious. Any one manifesting the slightest sympathy with Italy is immediately charged with high treason, and death sentences are of daily occurrence. The new governor, just appointed, is obliged to have all official documents countersigned by two officers of the general staff, one being German, the other Austrian.

Mrs. Katherine Randolph Fitzhugh, known as "The woman of mystery," who is said to be related to the famous Fitzhugh family of Virginia, was arrested in New York yesterday on suspicion of having committed the theft of handbags from churches. She was convicted and freed under suspended sentence in Octoebr, 1913, for the theft from St. Bartholmew's Church, in March of that year of a gold mesh bag belonging to Miss Dorothy Fisk, daughter of banker Pliny Fisk and a gold bracelet, the property of Irene Munsey, an actress. In women's night court, Magistrate Barlow held the woman under $1,000 bail for further examination.

The condition of Police Sergt. Harry R. Lohman, of the First precinct, Washington, who was shot twice in a revolver battle with Lewis Newman, an ex-marine on Ninth street early Sunday morning, was said to be favorable for recovery at Emergency Hospital last night.

A careful investigation by the Panama police and the American authorities reveals that only one Panama civilian was killed in the rioting at Panama early yesterday, but probably four persons were dangerously wounded, and it is believed that the total number of wounded will reach 45. Of these 17 are American soldiers. The fight of Saturday started in a resort in the Tenderloin district while many of the soldiers were on leave of absence to attend the carnival festivities.

Paul Becker, a clerk, of Brooklyn, gave up his life yesterday to save three little girls from injury. Becker was riding a motorcycle down Tenth street and Prospect park, when at Seventh avenue, the girls crossed directly in front of him. To avoid striking them, Becker swerved his cycle and crashed into a tree.

GREAT BATTLES ARE IMPENDING

Important Engagements in East Prussia Expected in Two Weeks

RUSSIANS RETREAT.

Von Hindenberg's Armies Sweeping Muscovites Back—Rear Guard Attempts to Check Germans.

Berlin, Feb. 15—Great battles are impending all along the line extending from near Tilsit, in East Prussia, to the Austrian province of Bukowina.

The Russian retreat continues, but dispatches from a dozen points today indicate that the Czar's forces are now reorganizing their lines and preparing for a stubborn resistance against the combined armies of Germany and Autsria.

The Prussian frontier northeast of Insterburg, and the river Sereth region in Bukowina are engaging the attention of the war office today. In those regions the most important engagements of the next fortnight, it is confidently predicted, will be fought out with decisive results.

Gen. Von Hindenburgs' armies, sweeping the invaders out of East Prussia, are encountering more desperate resistance than the Russians first offered when they began their retreat last week. The rear guard of the enemy is attempting to check the German pursuit by infantry charges. The evident purpose is to interrupt Von Hindenburg's progress while the main body of the Russians take positions along the frontier for a strong defense.

FIRE FROM EXPLOSION.

Four Persons Injured in Big Blaze at Cleveland.

Cleveland, Feb. 15.—The four-story building of Aldrich, Howey & Co., furniture dealers, was destroyed by fire and five other buildings in the retail district were damaged by flames which started late yesterday afternoon from an explosion, presumably of natural gas, in the furniture store. The damage exceeds $100,000.

Eugene Woodworth, who was passing the store when the explosion occurred, was hurled 50 feet and was taken to a hospital in a serious condition. Three other persons were knocked down or cut by flying glass from the force of the explosion.

CRUSHED UNDER AUTO.

Five Others Slightly Injured in Accident at Lynchburg.

Lynchburg, Va., Feb. 15.—Harry Wright, aged 23, was killed here early yesterday morning when he lost control of an automobile which he was driving. Five others were caught under the overturned machine, but all escaped with but minor injuries.

The car ignited from escaping gasoline and Wright was burned. It is believed, however, he was crushed to death. Wright lost control and the car ran into the curbing and turned turtle.

GAME ENDS FATALLY.

Man Found Shot Through Heart Near Gate City, Va.

Bristol, Va.-Tenn., Feb. 15.—The fatal ending of a game of cards was told in the discovery yesterday near Gate City, Scott county, Va., of the body of Auburn Chapman, 24 years old. Chapman had been shot through the heart, presumably by a companion, who, in hastening away, scattered a deck of cards about the dying man.

The authorities have found no definite clue, although one suspect is under arrest. Chapman is survived by a wife and child.

TABLET UNVEILED.

Memorial to Dr. L. M. Blackford Late Principal of the Episcopal High School.

A very interesting event took place at the Episcopal High School near this city on last Saturday in the unveiling of a memorial tablet to the memory of Dr. Blackford, its late honored principal. The exercises connected with this were appointed for two o'clock in the afternoon and promptly on the hour the present principal of the school, A. R. Hoxton, Esq., and Mr. Willoughby Reade the senior member of the school faculty after Mr. Hoxton, accompanied by Bishop Coadjutor Brown, of the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, and the Rev. Randolph H. McKim, D. D., of the Church of the Epiphany, Washington, D. C., the appointed speakers for the occasion, and the Honorable R. Walton Moore, of Fairfax, Va., the chairman of the exercises, took their seats at the head of the school chapel where the ceremonies of the unveiling were to take place.

Dr. McKim opened the exercises with a short but beautiful service. The familiar hymn, "How firm a foundation ye saints of the Lord," General Lee's favorite hymn, and also a favorite of Dr. Blackford's, was first sung, after which the Doctor read the 27th Psalm, 'The Lord is my strength and my salvation,' which Dr. Blackford always read when a soldier in the Confederate army, before going into battle. A few appropriate prayers were then read and the religious service closed with the hymn, 'For all the saints who from their abors rest.'

The Honorable R. Walton Moore then severally introduced the speakers in most fitting and eloquent language, and in so doing spoke most appropriately and sympathetically of Dr. Blackford's wonderful power and influence as Principal of the High School. Bishop Brown first addressed the audience on Dr. Blackford as an educator and was followed by Dr. McKim on Dr. Blackford as a Christian and a soldier. The masterly tributes of each expressed in beautiful English, and delivered with chaste yet deep feeling were well worthy of their subject and will not be forgetten by those who were privileged to hear them.

A number of letters were read by Professor Reade, from 'old boys' who were unable to attend, and one came from Dr. Alderman, President of the University of Virginia. All spoke of Dr. Blackford in the highest terms

Those who took part in the exercises were intimately connected with Dr. Blackford. Bishop Brown was an 'old boy' and a former teacher in the school. So was the present efficient Principal Mr. A. R. Hoxton, Dr. McKim was a fellow student with him at the University of Virginia, a companion in arms on the battle fields of the Confederacy and a life long friend, the Honorable R. Walton Moore was an old boy and Mr. Willoughby Reade was a teacher under him for 18 years.

There was a large attendance on this most interesting occasion, the boys of the present session and the school faculty, Professors and students of the Episcopal Seminary nearby, a number of 'old boys,' among them Mr. Morgan H. Beach, formerly of this city, Mr. Arthur Herbert, of this city, representing the Board of Trustees of the Seminary and High School, and Messrs. W. H. Randolph and Angus McD. Crawford, former teachers at the school. A number of friends were also present from 'The Hill' and this city and from Washington. All of Dr. Blackford's sons were present except Dr. John Minor Blackford, of Rochester, Minnesota.

The tablet is placed on the east wall of the school chapel, and is of pure white marble, finely executed by Messrs. J. & R Lamb, of New York City.

KAISER TO GIVE HIS BLESSINGS

Submarines Will Take to Sea Thursday to Starve Out British

TO LEAVE CUXHAVEN.

Berlin Press Says Men Manning Destroyers Are on Righteous Crusade in Defense of Fatherland.

Amsterdam, Feb. 15—Kaiser Wilhelm will give his blessing to German submarines as they take to sea on their mision of "starving out" England.

The Kaiser will go to Cuxhaven, the German naval base, on Thursday, February 18, when Von Tirpitz's new policy of raiding British merchant traffic is formally launched, and will urge his under-sea terrors to wipe English merchantmen from the sea.

Dispatches from Berlin brought this news today, and added that the announcement had created wild enthusiasm there. The Berlin press spoke of the "christening" of Germany's newest and most powerful submarines by the Emperor, and expressed the hope that every man of their crews would feel himself to be embarking upon a most righteous crusade in defense of the Fatherland.

The Kaiser will leave the eastern battle front on Wednesday for Cuxhaven. The sudden change in his plans may necessitate a change in the arrangement for his conference with American Ambassador Gerard. It is possible he will not see the American ambassador until he has wished the German submarines God speed as they leave on their new campaign against England.

Elaborate plans are being made for the Emperor's reception at Cuxhaven, according to Berlin dispatches.

PUBLIC PLAY GROUNDS.

Ways And Means for its Support During Coming Season Considered.

The wherewithal with which to support the play grounds during the coming summer is already agitating the minds of those who are interested in the movement. Several schemes for raising the necessary money have been considered by members of the committee.

After a consideration a "cherryday" has been decided on as most suitable for the 22nd instant instead of the regular tag day.

Members of the committee, realizing that the public has already been heavily taxed to help deserving charities, have thought that by this method a little help from everybody will perhaps take the place of larger sums from the few who so willingly helped last year. So the committee hopes that every one will wear at least one of the pretty cherries which will be on sale that day.

Last summer the need of a directed play ground was demonstrated. Over 500 children were on the ground during the summer and many of them were taught sewing, tapestry, crocheting, carpentering, etc., as well directed healthful play.

It was only by the co-operation of a generous public that the support of this work was possible, and it is hardly necessary to ask that every one, old and young, help the movement again.

MASKED MEN RIFLE SAFE

Clerk at "East Barn" of Washington Railway Electric Company Held at Bay

Washington, Feb. 15—Held at bay by revolvers, two clerks in charge of the "east barn" of the Washington Railway and Electric Company were forced to watch two masked men rifle the safe and cash drawers, and escape with $2,000 early today.

The clerks alone in the office of the "east barn" at 4 o'clock, were compelled to stand with hands aloft while one of the robbers poured money, checks, and car tickets into a gunny sack carried for the purpose.

The robbers threatened instant death if either man moved, and taken suddenly from behind with the command "Throw up your hands!" the company employes were helpless.

The east barn is the terminus of the Georgetown and Mt. Pleasant lines, at Fourteenth and East Capitol streets, and was all but deserted when the robbery occurred.

The robbers escaped, running south in Fourteenth street.

Between $4,000 and $5,000 in cash, a large quantity of it in silver coin, was overlooked by the robbers in their haste to complete their task and get away.

According to official statistics, there are 72,000 Germans of both sexes engaged in trade in Italy, and 40,000 in the north, chiefly at Milan and Turin. These Germans have received notice to leave the country as soon as they can arrange their business matters through the German consulates. The express trains arriving at Chiasso for Basel, on the St. Gothard line, and at Brieg via the Simplon tunnel, are crowded with Germans and Austrians returning to their countries. Certain portions of the Swiss frontier have been reinforced.

NEW TAX LAW TO BE TESTED

There Are Those Opposed to it Who Question its Validity.

WILL RAISE ISSUES

Committees Will Work Diligently During the Three Weeks the General Assembly is Recessing.

Richmond, Va., Feb, 15—Every out-of-town member of the Legislature has returned to his home and to his constituents and the Capitol looks like the proverbial banquet hall deesrted. A few of the clerks remained and were busy packing up the records to await the return of the solons in March, when they will come back to conclude the work of the special session called to revise the tax laws.

Some of the members will go home with many misgivings. Their localities will be seriously affected by the changes made and proposed and an explanation will be demanded. On the satisfaction of these answers may possibly depend the future political life of the present member.

An entire new Legislature is to be elected next November and the results of the new tax measure may seriously affect the candidacy of many of the members who have endeavored for the past month to revise the tax system so as to make it better for all the peoole.

Already there is much doubt and speculation as to the results of the proposed segregation measure just passed, with many amendments in the form of a State advisory board and local board of review. The constitutionality of the measure has already been questioned and there have have been rumors that the new law will be taken into the courts at the first opportunity.

In addition to the tax measure adopted many local bills were passed. The consideration of matters other than tax question delayed the proceedings of the assembly and in a measure was the cause of the recess that had to be taken in order to rearrange the present tax laws to make them conform to the new bill. While many of the local bills were of great importance, if these had not been introduced the opinion prevails that the tax bill would have been concluded at the end of the thirty days.

NEGRO SHOOTS THREE.

One White Man Dead, Two Expected to Die—Posse Surrounds House, But Black Escapes.

Ashburn, Ga., Feb 15.—Because of an attempt to whip a negro near here Saturday night one white man is dead and two others received wounds that are expected to prove fatal.

The dead man is Wesley MacDonold, a wealthy planter. His brother, Preston McDonald, and Frank Davis, are the wounded men.

Wesley McDonald had trouble with "Jim" Turner, a negro tenant. It is alleged that the negro had told ugly stories concerning McDonald and about 11 o'clock Saturday night McDonald, accompanied by his brother and Davis, went to the negro's home with the intention of whipping him. As the three white men approached the house of the negro the latter opened fire. Wesley McDonald dropped dead and Preston McDonald and Frank Davis were badly wounded.

A posse was formed and Turner's house surrounded. The structure was riddled with bullets, but he succeeded in escaping. Yesterday the posse went through the negro settlement searching for Turner, but did not find him.

Friends of the McDonalds and Davis say that other negroes aided Turner, and they are threatening summary vengeance. There is much alarm among the negroes, and several have left the town.

Y. M. S. L. MINSTRELS.

The minstrel show to be presented by the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum at Lyceum Hall tonight and Tuesday, promises to be the best ever given by this organization. A new feature of this year's show is a chorus of young ladies.

The grand medley overture of the latest song hits will be sung by the entire company of between thirty and forty voices, and this, together with the numerous comic and sentimental solos and side-splitting jokes, will go towards making the 1915 performance the greatest in the history of the Y. M. S. L. Minstrel Club. The second part will be a one-act sketch in which only the young ladies will take part. This act will be of the farce comedy type and will provoke no small amount of laughter from the audience.

The show will be under the direction of Mr. Tom Trodden, Jr., of Washington, D. C., and Miss Mary Devitt, of this city, is director of the musical section.

The show will start at 8:15 o'clock, and a large crowd is expected to attend.

HISTORIC CLOCK.

Timepiece Was in Marshall House at Time the Dual Tragedy Took Place May 24, 1861.

The history of the old Masonic clock now on exhibition at the Brad- House is as follows:

After the close of the civil war of 1861-5 the furniture and fixtures in the old Marshall House Hotel in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, were sold at public auction, at which sale this clock was purchased by a citizen and it has been in his possession ever since. The old Marshall House Hotel was kept in 1861 by J. T. Jackson who, on May 24, 1861, killed Colonel Ellsworth of the New York Fire Zouvas, who had pulled down a Confederate flag which had been waving over the hotel. Jackson was killed a few minutes later by Ellswroth's soldiers.

SENT TO THE GRAND JURY

Robert Benson and Harry Brown Before the Police Court This Morning

Following a preliminary hearing in the Police Court today, Robert Benson, charged with breaking into a storage room in the old City Hotel building and stealing a quantity of silverware, bed clothing and other articles, the property of Miss Mamie Fleming, the accused was held for the action of the grand jury.

Harry Brown, who, according to the testimony, disposed of some of the plunder, was sentenced to serve 90 days in jail. The police recovered most of the goods, which had been sold to different people in the city.

The robbery occurred about three months ago but was only discovered recently. The police said that Benson aided them in recovering a part of the plunder.

POLICE COURT.

(Justice H. B. Caton Presiding)

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Robert Benson, charged with robbery, was held for the action of the grand jury.

Harry Brown, charged with receiving goods stolen by Robert Benson and disposing of the same, was sentenced to ninety days in jail.

H. Freidlander, charged with distributing hand bills on the street, was dismissed.

Henry Little, charged with wife-beating, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

Six white men, charged with gambling, forfeited their collateral by failing to appear.

M. J. Lefwich, colored, charged with defacing the property of Ben Lucas, was dismissed.

"THE STRENGTH OF YOUTH."

The men's meeting held yesterday afternoon in the Westminster Building of the Second Presbyterian Church was addressed by Whitehead Kluttz, of Washington, secretary of the international joint commission and former president of the North Carolina State Senate. His topic was "The Strength of Youth."

Mr Kluttz has a pleasing personality and is an impressive speaker. He spoke of physical, mental and normal strength, and referred to the many young men who had reached fame beofre 35 years of age.

He said the world needs young men of faith, vision and great moral courage.

DEATH OF W. H. HUNTER.

William Henry Hunter, aged 68 years, for many years a molder in the navy yard at Washington, died yesterday aternoon at his home, 330 south Lee street. His death was due to cirrhosis of the liver, with which disease he had been suffering for the past six months. His widow survives him. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late home. The services will be conducted by the Rev. John Lee Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church.

SURPRISE TONIGHT.

The following is an extract from a letter written by Mr. London to the Famous Player Film Company.

When I wrote the "Sea Wolf" the physical image of Larsen that took shape in my mind was more or less vague in outline and detail. Nevertheless, it was there, in my mind, and I carried it with me for years, until it was almost real to me. But it fled like a ghost at daybreak when I saw, on the screen, Mr. Hobart Bosworth, the real, three-dimension, flesh-and-blod, "Sea Wolf." Until I die the image of the Sea Wolf will be Mr. Bosworth as I saw him on the screen. "Jack London."

DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT.

Mrs. Henrietta Strobel, wife of Charles A. Strobel, died at her home in northeast Washington last night. The deceased was Miss Henrietta Kaus, and she was a native of Alexandria. Beside her husband she is survived by several children. Her funeral will take place from B. Wheatley's Chapel on Wednesday at 4 o'clock P. M.

DEATH NOTICE.

STROBEL—Departed this life February 14th, at 10:10 P. M., at her late residence, 1407 Montecello Avenue, Northeast, Washington, D. C., HENRIETTA, beloved wife of Charles A. Strobel, nee Kaus, aged 33. Funeral services will be held from Wheatley's Chapel Wednesday, February 17th, at four o'clock. Friends invited.

LENT BEGINS THIS WEEK

Services in Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran Churches Will Be Inaugurated.

Lent will generally be observed in the Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran churches in the city, and on Ash Wednesday, the beginning of the season of penitence, special masses will be sung in the Catholic church and special services will be held in all the Episcopal houses of worship.

In the Catholic Church members of the congregation will receive at the hands of the priest the ashes of the palms of the preceding Palm Sunday. The ashes will be blessed and censered and will be drawn in a form of the cross on the foreheads of the communicants. The day is the first of forty days in which special prayers for forgiveness are uttered, and in which the communicants of the Catholic and Episcopal churches are supposed to perform some deeds of penitence and to make some sacrifice in memory of the sacrifice which was made for them.

Little is known of the history and origin of Ash Wednesday, though it is generally believed that the day was well established as early as the eighteenth century. In the earlier writings on church history Ash Wednesday appears as "Dies Cinerarium" or day of ashes and in earlier, times penitents appeared public before the congregations, and in sackcloth and ashes confessed their sins.

ALLEGED GAMBLING

Lunch Room on King Street Raided Yesterday Morning.

At eight o'clock yesterday morning a detail of officers under Sergeant Scott raided an alleged gambling house located over the Alexandria Quick Lunch room on King street. Six men were placed under arrest and a quantity of cards and chips confiscated. At Police Court they gave their names as Charle Smith, Henry Johnson, C. Williams Sam Ennis and Pat Sweeney. They gave collateral for their appearance in Police Court this morning.

The accused forfeited $5 collateral each in court today by failing to appear.

GERMANY'S WAR ZONE.

While every effort is being made by Ambassador Gerard and the more conservative German representatives to allay alarm in America and the Fatherland concerning the attitude of the Kaiser towards the recent note from this country in regard to the what Germany has designated the war zone, that relations between the two countries are strained cannot be denied. We believe the Kaiser would, if possible, steer clear of actual hostilities under present conditions and not manifest such rashness as to add another nation to his enemies, but that there is danger of trouble should an American ship meet disaster from German submarines or mines must be apparent to all who study the situation. The Kaiser was reared in the school of rashness, and he has been an apt scholar. While the world was protesting against his purpose to devastate the peaceful land of Belgium, treaties and objections did not deter him from carrying out its purpose. He may show an equal contempt for the United States in its endeavors to protect its shipping as he did for Japan's ultimatum. At any rate, nothing, so far, has appeared to show that our protests will be seriously considered.

Other countries beside the United States are up in arms over the proclamation defining the war zone, and Italy, Holland, Denmark, Norway and Sweden are among those ready to defend their mercantile marine.

Germany is a great nation from a military point of view. It has been an armed camp lo these many years years, and the roll of drums and the rattle of sabres have probably reverberated in that country more than the clang of church bells. But that the Kaiser can hold his own against virtually the entire civilized portion of the globe is a mooted question. Gallant as may be the Teutons, the time must come when the drain upon their resources will bring about serious conditions.

Should war, unfortunately, be the result of present unsatisfactory conditions, it would, of course, be economic in its nature. Many millions of dollars of German capital are represented in interned ships at American ports. It would be a war upon the high seas, and Germany already has been denuded of the great bulk of her foreign trade. During the past six months she has been virtually driven from the east by Japan, and with the navies of the world scouring the oceans her ships would eventually become as scarce as sea serpents or mermaids. The Kaiser, however, may have counted the cost

LENTEN SEASON DRAWING NEAR.

War which began in Europe while the fields were filled with golden grain continues, and as spring approaches and nature is preparing to awaken from its hibernation the clash of arms is still in evidence. The Lenten season will begin this week, and civilized nations of the world are drenching the earth with the blood of their fellow-creatujres while followers of Christianity everywhere will soon be passing through the most solemn season of the year.

The dove of peace still lodges in the new world, but while our people are passing through the penitential season, others will be in tribulation and anguish as the boom of cannon will mingle with the church chimes.

A gentlemen who lives at Mount Vernon came to this office this morning to announce that mocking birds [illegible] from midnight until one o'clock [illegible] morning in that locality; also [illegible] a rainbow appearerd in the [illegible] sum. In these trying times our [illegible]st simultaneously with the rise of [illegible]ntry has much for which to be [illegible]ankful, and the advent of the birds [illegible]d the appearance of the bow in [illegible]e clouds may be omens of a continuation of tranquility in the new [illegible]orld.

DEATH OF FANNY CROSBY.

Fanny Crosby, authoress of so many popular hymns, after a pilgrimage of ninety-five years, has paid the debt of mature. Like Homer and Milton, Fanny Crosby was blind. There are many interesting anecdotes in connection with the life of this noble woman—she fed upon spirtuality and imparted her own experience to others through her hymns, which are so often hummed by those rejoicing in spirit as well as by the weary and heavy-ladened The great writer is said to have composed several thousand hymns during her life, some of which are the most popular of gospel selections.

TRIBUTE TO COL. MOSBY

University of Virginia Presents Him With Medal And Address.

Dr. Charles W. Kent, in behalf of the president and faculty of the University of Virginia, recently presented to Col. John S. Mosby a beautiful bronze medal and a handsomely embossed address, reading as follows;

"To Col. John S. Mosby, Warrenton, Va.:

"Your friends and admirers in the University of Virginia welcome this opportunity of expressing for you their affectionate esteem and of congratulating you upon the vigor and alertness of body and mind with which you have rounded out your four-score years.

"Your alma mater has pride in your scholarly application in the days of your prepossessing youth, in your material genius manifested in a career singularly original and romantic in the forceful fluency of your record of the history made by yourself and your comrades in the army of northern Virginia, and in the dignity, diligence, and sagacity with which you have served your reunited country at home and abroad.

"Endowed with the gift of friendship which won for you the confidence of both Lee and Grant, you have proved yourself a man of war, a man of letters, and a man of affairs worthy of the best traditions of your university and your State, to both of which you have been a loyal son.

"University of Virginia,

Lineman Killed.

Petersburg, Va., Feb. 15.—B. F. Gregg, employed as a lineman for the Western Union Telegraph Company, was fatally injured at Estes on the Norfolk and Western Railroad, seven miles east of Petersburg Saturday evening. He had climbed a pole and strapped himself to it preparatory to stringing wires. The pole slipped from the hole, owing to the dampness of the earth, and Gregg was thrown to the ground, the pole falling on top of him. He was brought to the hospital in this city, where he died later. He is survived by his widow and several children.

Be Sure You Get This Old Reliable Cough Medicine
Imitations always follow the trail of success. Hundreds of imitations have come and gone since FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND began, 40 years ago, to loosen the grip of coughs and colds.
Be sure you get the genuine
Foley's Honey and Tar Compound
And avoid the names that sound like it.
Here are three easy ways to tell the genuine. 1st—The name of "Foley's." 2nd—The yellow package. 3rd—The Beehive on the yellow package. You cannot get a substitute to do for you what FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND will do—for coughs, colds, croup, bronchial and lagrippe coughs, throat and lung trouble. Buy it of your druggist and be safe.
